

This Do Not Call Act was a great idea. We no longer have interrupted dinners or evenings filled with unwanted telephone calls. My choice was to register for the Do Not Call because I did not want solicitation calls and I do not want these calls. It is all about choice and I should have that right to choose. I enjoy my evenings solicitation free!!! Let this continue to be my choice after all it is my telephone.